

Hanging basket

Find a pen with the squisht top used for pointing on screens and pull the squishy top off

Take a piece of thread and run it through glue to stiffen it and fold it in half and glue it to either side of the "pot" When dry add some thread around the outside of pot and glue in place. This will give the hanging thread more stability.

Paint if desired and fill with greenery and some flower scatter.