

Ever wonder what a certain piece of material will look if used in quarter scale. This card will answer that question. Print it on plain paper then cut out the designated pieces before gluing it to clear plastic to make it more stable. I usually glue another piece onto the back too. It can be glued to a sturdier piece of paper and that paper will need to be cut out also.

