

YARD ART

By Michelle Miller

Pins

Fimo slices that are sold as fingernail art

Glue the shapes on the top of the pin just under the head. Take another shape and cut it in half to use as the leaves of the art. Plant them in your garden.

Have fun with this and remember that real life yard art is oversized, so don't worry about trying to keep this in scale.