

QC is having another Mini Weekend!

QC is 25 Years Old! Join us for a Special Weekend Celebration September 13-15, 2024

You are all invited to participate in our sales room. Our theme this year is the “QC Silver Jubilee, A Bookcase of Memories”.

The Souvenir Project this year is a set of bookends with an additional wall to convert them into one house if desired. The kit for the prototype shown below will be available from Liz West, starting June 1.

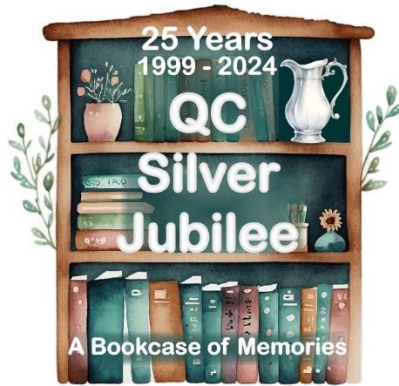

It is, of course, ¼” scale (or 1/48 for us into math), but if you have any great ideas and need measurements of the rooms, just ask. The floors in each room are 4” x 4” so they are a nice size.

In addition to the bookends souvenir kit that people can purchase, we will be offering a DIY “book house”, a narrow structure suited to smaller furnishings.

For this weekend we’re not going to have separate roundtable or workshop pages, just a sales room. You are welcome to offer whatever products you have that go along with the theme (finished items, kits, workshops, etc.), a general discount on your website, or whatever works best for you!

A wide variety of items can go into these bookends and book houses and we are looking forward to having a great sales room.

Our webpages will look something like this:

Instructions for participating in the Mini Weekend sales event on QC

1. Send an email to Janet Smith (desertminis@gmail.com) AND Kathy Abdinoor (kaabdino@yahoo.com) to let us know that you want to participate. This way we can plan a bit for how many people we might have taking us up on this opportunity.
2. On or before August 15th, we will need 2 things:
 - Send the following information as you'd like it to appear in the block at the top of the page (if not all 4 items below apply to you, just send what does):

Your Company Name
Your Name
Your Website Address
Your Email Address

Send a .jpg file with your ad. If you're not sure how to create a .jpg file, you can send a single page word document or a single page .pdf file and Janet will take a screen shot to use for your ad

3. Pages will NOT be updated during the event, so please include everything you want to include the first time around. Since we're not offering separate workshop or roundtable pages, include those items in your ad if you want them featured on your page.
4. Again, the deadline is August 15th!
